Biography

Drawing from over 30 years of assisting a diverse range of sector-leading multinationals, listed and private entities and their management, Peter is a highly respected lawyer who has gained substantial experience both locally and internationally during his admirable career.

Previously, Peter worked for several years as general counsel in an ICT market-leader and gained in depth experience and insight as head of compliance with one of the world's largest investment and retail banking groups, in which position he was responsible for its South African and other sub-Saharan African operations. Peter was admitted to practice in South Africa, Botswana, Lesotho and Swaziland in 1990 and in the United Kingdom in 1992.

Peter has advised and assisted major international and local insurers and reinsurers, captives and insurance intermediaries based in South Africa and other African countries, the Channel Islands and the Virgin Islands. Peter has also assisted clients on tax efficient business establishment structures, niche acquisitions, strategic alliances and the more effective management of disputes and regulatory compliance and challenges.
