Biography

Khaya has acted for clients in several sectors, including public and state companies and private parties involved in infrastructure projects, such as ports, dams, power stations, toll roads, hospitals and government accommodation facilities.

His experience includes drafting and reviewing construction contracts based on standard form agreements, such as the Federation Internationale Des Ingenieurs-Conseils (FIDIC) and the Joint Building Contracts Committee (JBCC), and the New Engineering Contract (NEC) and bespoke contracts. He has also prepared EPC, EPCM, O&M, and Design-Build contracts.

Khaya has extensive experience in providing advice and assisting clients in mediation, adjudication and arbitration for construction disputes. This experience has included several disputes involving the construction of power stations, dams, roads, mines and smelters throughout Africa.

Khaya obtained his LL.B. at the University of KwaZulu-Natal in 2010 and joined Fluxmans as a Director in 2021.
